

Business Expert Press: Terms and Conditions for EBooks

Collections of ebooks purchased by institutions directly from Business Expert Press (BEP) are offered without Digital Rights Management (DRM), and are owned, perpetually, for a one-time payment.

Institutions making direct purchases of BEP ebook collections are entitled to:

- unlimited concurrent usage
- unrestricted downloading of the PDF versions of any ebook, to any device equipped to display PDFs
- print all, or portions, of each ebook
- upload the PDF version of all or any portion of any ebook to course websites or learning management systems, and incorporate all or portions of any ebook into course packs for authorized users (but not for commercial re-use)
- perpetual access to the content
- make access to ebooks available to alumni (campus access only)

Free MARC records, which include OCLC numbers, are supplied with each order. All ebooks are archived on CLOCKSS¹. No license agreement is required, as BEP is registered with, and uses whenever mutually agreeable, NISO's Shared Electronic Resources Understanding (SERU)².
